

Kinney Bungalow

Sunset Farm, Narragansett RI

*Thank you for choosing Kinney Bungalow for your special day!
Our team will strive to make your experience at the Bungalow an event to remember...*

Kinney Bungalow was built in 1899 by Francis S. Kinney, a tobacco and real estate millionaire, in order to host parties following polo matches. Its design is strongly influenced by East Indian style, perhaps a taste he acquired from his younger years as a sailor.

He and Abbot Kinney, his younger brother, had founded Kinney Brothers Tobacco Company, one of the leading cigarette manufacturers in the late nineteenth century. Eventually they merged their company with others into the "tobacco trust" organized by James Buchanan Duke (father of the late Newport heiress and socialite, Doris Duke). Abbot Kinney had fallen in love with Venice, Italy in his youth, so he moved out west and founded Venice, California as a destination resort and amusement center. Francis Kinney invested in real estate and was very involved in the polo matches in Narragansett.

Following Kinney's death, Kinney Bungalow was purchased by the Chase/Ewing family. It was the site of numerous dances, parties, and celebrations. Lucia Chase Ewing, co-founder of the American Ballet Theater, brought the troupe to Narragansett where the Bungalow served as their summer rehearsal site.

In 1991 the Bungalow, along with historic Sunset Farm, was acquired by the Town of Narragansett. The property (Kinney Bungalow and Sunset Farm) is managed by the Narragansett Land Conservancy Trust. Following major restoration work, Kinney Bungalow was opened to the public in 2002.

Once again Kinney Bungalow is a favorite site for wedding ceremonies and receptions, birthday and anniversary parties, cocktail parties, corporate events, and happy gatherings for many occasions.
